SUBJECT: Revision to Period Three Award Term Evaluation Score

Based on the information provided by the Performance Evaluation Board Report and in consultation with the Board Chairman, I hereby recommend an increased rating of the score to 91 based on the following:

During this period, the extraordinary measures undertaken by ROME in executing LaRC budget reductions. These reductions could have significantly impacted Langley operations, but were minimized due to the proactive management approach taken in executing the reductions.

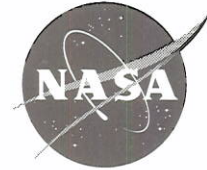

There is no award term available for Period Three; however, in accordance with the Award Term Plan, Periods Three and Four will be combined at the conclusion of Rating Period Four (ending January 31, 2006) for the opportunity to gain additional term.

FINDINGS

The Award Term Performance Evaluation Board, acting under the authority of Langley Research Center interoffice letter dated March 23, 2006, and within the intent of Section G.2 of contract NNL04AA03B, has completed evaluation of the Contractor's performance on said contract for the period August 1, 2005 – January 31, 2006. Based upon the evaluation developed by the Board, the Contractor's performance has met the requirements of the Contract in such a manner as to warrant the award of additional term in accordance with the "Award Term" provisions of the Contract.

In accordance with the Award Term Plan, Revision 2, dated July 2005, the Board has recommended award of 6 months of additional term to the contract. Details of the evaluation and basis for final ratings are included in the Period 4 Award Term File maintained by the Office of Procurement.

DETERMINATION

Upon the basis of the findings set forth above, I hereby determine that pursuant to Section G.2, AWARD TERM, the Contractor is awarded additional term in the amount of 6 months for performance during the period August 1, 2005 through January 31, 2006.

FINDINGS AND DETERMINATION DECISION TO AWARD TERM PURSUANT TO THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS
OF NASA CONTRACT NNL04AA03B, SECTION G.2, AWARD TERM

FINDINGS

The Award Term Performance Evaluation Board, acting under the authority of Langley Research Center interoffice letter dated February 9, 2010, and within the intent of Section G.2 of contract NNL04AA03B, has completed evaluation of the Contractor's performance on said contract for the period February 1, 2009 – January 31, 2010. Based upon the evaluation developed by the Board, the Contractor's performance has met the requirements of the Contract in such a manner as to warrant the award of additional term in accordance with the "Award Term" provisions of the Contract.

In accordance with the Award Term Plan, Revision 5, dated November 2008, the Board has recommended award of 12 months of additional term to the contract. Details of the evaluation and basis for final ratings are included in the Period 12 Award Term File maintained by the Office of Procurement.

DETERMINATION

Upon the basis of the findings set forth above, I hereby determine that pursuant to Section G.2, AWARD TERM, the Contractor is awarded additional term in the amount of 12 months for performance during the period February 1, 2009 through January 31, 2010.
